Our publications, products and services should be viewed as an additional investment resource, not as your sole source of information. We recommend you obtain appropriate financial, legal and taxation advice before making any financial investment decision. In addition:

- You should be aware that past performance does not necessarily indicate a financial product's likely future performance; and

4. Documents you may receive

Before you are issued with one of our products or the products we manage, you will receive additional documents that contain information about the particular product to help you make an informed decision about that product.

Product Disclosure Statement (“PDS”)

5. Remuneration, Commission, Fees or Other Benefits

If you invest in one of the products we manage, Alpha will receive remuneration from various fees and charges.

Our fees are based on a percentage of assets under management, known as a management fee. If you invest in our managed account portfolios via a platform, the management fee is typically calculated monthly in arrears based on the daily value of your account with the platform and the particular model portfolio selected. It is deducted directly from your platform account and paid to us by the platform. Alpha does not charge performance fees.

The details of fees and charges are set out in the relevant SMA Disclosure Statement. If you would like a copy of these documents, please contact us on the contact details listed in this FSG.

Alpha regularly reviews all gifts, benefits and entertainment received to ensure adherence with internal policy requirements.

To the extent that any income we receive in respect of, or attributable to, the services that we provide you, as at the date of this FSG we cannot ascertain the amount that we reasonably expect to receive.
