

Target Market Determination for the Platformplus Super Wrap – Accumulation Portfolio

Important Information

A Target Market Determination (TMD) is required under section 994B of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). It sets out the target market for the product, triggers to review the target market and certain other information. It forms part of Equity Trustees Superannuation Limited’s design and distribution framework for the product.

This TMD applies to the Accumulation Portfolio of the Platformplus Super Wrap. It seeks to provide consumers, distributors and their staff with an understanding of the class of consumers for which this product has been designed, having regard to the objectives, financial situation and needs of the target market.

This document is not a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) and is not a summary of the product features or terms of the product. This document does not take into account any person’s individual objectives, financial situation or needs and is not intended to provide financial advice. Persons interested in acquiring this product should carefully read the PDS and any supplementary documents for Platformplus Super Wrap before making any investment decisions in relation to this product.

Adequacy of Distribution Conditions/Restrictions

The Trustee considers that the distribution conditions/restrictions will make it likely that customers who purchase the product are in the class of customers for which it has been designed.

The Trustee considers that the distribution conditions/restrictions are appropriate and will assist distribution in being directed towards the target market for whom the product has been designed.

In making this determination, the Trustee has had particular regard to:

- eligibility conditions under relevant law; and
- a consumer can only become a member through, or having been assessed by, approved financial advisers.

Review Triggers

- 1) Where the issuer of the TMD has determined that any of the following has occurred:
 - a) ASIC reportable significant dealing outside of TMD.
 - b) Significant or unexpectedly high number of complaints (as defined in section 994A(1) of the Act) regarding product design, product availability or any distribution condition where the product issuer considers this reasonably suggests that this TMD is no longer appropriate.
 - c) Material change to key product attributes, terms and/or conditions where the product issuer considers this reasonably suggests that this TMD is no longer appropriate.
 - d) The use of Product Intervention Powers, regulator orders or directions in relation to the distribution of this product where the product issuer considers this reasonably suggests that this TMD is no longer appropriate.
 - e) A significant breach event relating to the design or distribution of this product where the product issuer considers this would reasonably suggest that (i) this product is unsuitable for a particular cohort of customers and (ii) the TMD may no longer be appropriate.
- 2) Where the Trustee makes a determination for purposes of s52(9) of Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 that the financial interests of the customers who hold this product are not being promoted.
